The Weekly Astorian
Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is published weekly, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc. It is furnished to single subscribers at $2.00 per year in advance. A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them. DAILY or WEEKLY editions at any post-office without additional expense. Address may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders of the carrying room.

—St. Patrick's day.
—Fishing season opens next month.
—The Serica was taken down to Bakers bay yesterday.
—The Shubrick went down to the bar yesterday but was compelled to return to Bakers bay.
—The main building of Mr. Jos. Hume's Astoria cannery is rapidly nearing completion.
—We notice several sidewalks throughout the city in bad condition, minus railings, etc.
—A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leon was buried in the city cemetery yesterday.
—Every cannery between Tongue point and the mouth of the river will be in active operation the coming season.
—The inmates of the city jail were out enjoying the beautiful weather yesterday, and at the same time exercising themselves by cleaning the streets.
—When an Astoria girl gets a letter from her sweetheart, is that any reason why she should run her head into a fellow's bosom on the sidewalk while reading it? Such recklessness should be prohibited.
—Hill's brass band was out yesterday and discoursed some fine music. Several new pieces have recently been added to this band, and it claims now to be equal to any and excelled by none on the coast.
—The British ship Glencarn has just finished discharging 925 tons of English steel rail for the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, at Allen & Lewis' docks, Portland, and is now loading with wheat and flour.
—The steamship Oregon was still unable to cross the bar yesterday. She was detained on her trip up by the strong head winds. Yesterday morning she was sighted off the bar about five o'clock, but was unable to cross. Yesterday she was again sighted off the bar, making an attempt to enter, which was abandoned on account of the roughness of the bar.
—The new steamer, the Washington, is now lying at the Willamette Iron works, Portland, being fitted up with new machinery, etc. She is owned by the business men of Vancouver who propose to run her between Portland and that place. She will cost about twelve thousand dollars when finished and will be a solid, substantial vessel.
—Rev. L. A. Banks, the editor of The Censer, a temperance journal published at Vancouver, is in the city, and will canvass Astoria to-day for subscribers to his paper. He will deliver a temperance lecture this evening at half-past seven o'clock at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association. Admission free and no collection taken up. All are invited to attend.
—One of the busiest places in the city is the machine works of Messrs. Arndt & Ferchen. There can be daily seen a large force of men constantly employed and the shops pushed with work. They have two lathes and make a specialty of cannery work, repairing dies, etc. It is their intention to erect a large and commodious shop on the lot recently purchased by them foot of Lafayette street, but on account of the constant rush of work they will not be in readiness to move until after the fishing season.

Saint Patrick.

To-day, St. Patrick's day, seems to have been sadly neglected by our Irish fellow-citizens. We have heard of no preparations having been made for any celebration, and it is evident the day will pass by unnoticed. It has been customary for centuries to celebrate the anniversary of St. Patrick on the 17th of March. We have no reliable data as to his birthplace. By some it is claimed that he was born in France, while others claim that he was born at Kilpatrick, on the mouth of the river Clyde, in Scotland, between Danbritton and Glasgow, in the year 373, and died in Ireland March 17, 495, being at that time 122 years old. It is the anniversary of his death, not of his birth, which the Irish celebrate with characteristic propensity. He was of honorable birth, as his name, Patricius, indicates. He was the son of Calphurnius and Conchessa, and was of mixed descent, British, Gaulish and Roman. During his early career he was captured several times and made to serve as a slave, but by the interposition of Divine Providence he was released from his long captivity and returned to his home. He was a great abolitionist and directed his energies to the suppression of slavery, which was general in his day. Both Catholic and Protestant writers assert that he was a man after God's own heart. No country kept the purity of religion so unsullied by aught earthly, as Ireland in the early centuries.

—Mr. Joseph Paquette has just received the contract from the Oregon Navigation company to build a new stern wheel steamboat for their river trade. It is estimated that the vessel will cost in the neighborhood of fifteen thousand dollars. It will be completed in about three months.

—A Mr. Bent has arrived in Victoria from Cowichan and reports having discovered a lead of gold and silver bearing quartz of great richness in the mountains not far from the Koksashah quartz mining company's claim. He is said to have rich specimens and is on his way to California to have them assayed.

—The Malheur reservation is to be abandoned and the stores and supplies transferred to the Yakima agency, as soon as the roads are practicable for travel, which is not likely to happen before June. Many ranchers in the vicinity of Malheur reservation are waiting with interest to learn what disposition is to be made of the lands.

—The little steamer Luella, built at Astoria, has been purchased by parties on the upper Columbia, and will be placed on the river between Grant's Landing and Columbus, Washington territory, and will be used in connection with a large barge to convey freight and passengers from the Oregon to the Washington territory side.

—Next Sunday, the 20th inst., the Oregon Railway and Navigation company will adopt a new freight tariff, and all charges will be made at a hundred pound rate instead of by the ton. Freight will be divided into four classes, each at a fixed rate. Under the new schedule up bound freight is reduced about ten per cent. The company has issued an extensive pamphlet giving freight classifications and explicit instructions to shippers and employees.

—Mr. Curtis Galloway informed a reporter of The Dalles Mountaineer of a strange freak of nature which took place near Three-mile creek, about eight and a half miles from that city. Recently a spot of ground which had before been apparently as compact as that which surrounded it was suddenly torn up as if by an earthquake, and rocks and earth were scattered in every direction, leaving an immense hole which immediately filled with water. The performance was probably caused by the action of the atmosphere on some subterranean body of water and as it has furnished a comparatively dry section with an abundance of that useful liquid, it is quite an accommodation freak of Dame Nature as well furnishing an advantage to offer to prospective immigrants.

—Prof. J. P. Feaster will open a class in penmanship at the school house on Main street, on Monday evening next, 21st inst. The Oregon city Enterprise says of him: "Prof. J. P. Feaster of Portland, left us a few days ago for Astoria. The Prof. has had a class of over one hundred scholars here in penmanship, all of whom are in their expressions, regarding his successful method of teaching. We commend him to the people of Astoria, feeling that they will have no cause to regret giving him a large class."

—For the Genuine J. H. Cutter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

Horse Education.

In something written we have an indistinct recollection of having made reference to a general disposition among boys in their teens, as well as boys of maturer years, to enlighten and bless the world with their profound knowledge of the horse and his history. Our books and newspapers are full of this kind of literature, and it varies in style from the production of the child at school, commencing with: The horse has four legs and a tail; up to the eloquent tribute of the scholar when he quotes from Job: That his neck is clothed with thunder and the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains and the shouting. Between these two extremes of the child at his first school composition, and the professional literature, we have every grade of pretention, and each professing to have mastered the whole subject. As we approach the close of this nineteenth century, we begin to look for something better in this department of knowledge from those who assume to instruct. And it is to be found in Kendall's Treatise on the horse, sent by mail to any person for twenty-five cents, postage paid. Apply to THE ASTORIAN office, or address D. C. Ireland, Astoria, Oregon.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc.

Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fish-cannery and cannery supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

To Let.

Several furnished or unfurnished rooms at Mrs. Munson's lodging house. Also, a few persons can have board if required, either ladies or gentlemen.

J. W. Munson

Is getting impatient waiting for some of those promises to pay balances due on account of steamer Magnot. He don't want to make costs, but is liable to do so.

Fresh snelt at Warren & Eatons.

—Fresh leaf lard at Warren and Eatons.

—P. Wilhelm, Boss saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.

—What is the cry from ocean to ocean? Kendall's Spavin Cure. Read the advertisement.

—Mr. John Rogers, of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season.

—For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others.

—P. J. Goodnan, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

—Fresh vegetables, parsley, greens, etc., for table use, fresh from the gardens, can be had cheaply at Mrs. Galloway's, Squemoque street.

—A nice lot of eastern oysters at Roscoe's, arrived yesterday by steamer Columbia. Call around. You will find them first class.

—For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

—Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

—When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Fabres on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours.

—John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brand, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

—Auction or no auction, Adler's large stock, recently brought up by him from San Francisco, has so rapidly sold that he was compelled to leave again for San Francisco by the last steamer to replenish his store with all the latest novelties in his line. He is agent for the standard makes of pianos, organs and all kinds of musical instruments of which he will continue to keep a full stock.

—By a recent postal decision men can actually make money by getting their bills and statements of accounts printed. Statements of accounts and bills of sale when made out on paper having printed headings, can be sent by mail for one cent, if the envelope is left unsealed; whereas, if it is made out on unprinted paper, it will cost three cents. Thus by patronizing THE ASTORIAN two cents can be saved on every bill or statement that is sent out through the mail.

Marvel not that I say unto you, ye must pay the printer. Whosoever neglecteth to pay the printer, hath not eternal life abiding in him. Who hath sorrow, who hath woe, who hath the nightmare? They who forget to render unto the printer his just dues. If a man live many years and payeth not for THE ASTORIAN, behold he shall not die in peace till he hath restored to the printer that which he hath withheld.

Syphon Study Lamp.

Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use. It gives a steady, brilliant light; is free from unpleasant odors; does not drip either when burning or not burning; easily lighted and trimmed, and is without exception, the most convenient lamp to fill ever made. Directions accompanying each lamp. Call upon Mr. Case and buy one. He sells them at remarkable low rates.

Central Hotel.

The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Belch will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

AMUSEMENTS.

Hill's Varieties.

Geo. Hill, proprietor and manager, Fred Gere, stage manager, A. Ostrander, leader of orchestra, Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band.—Entire change of programme this evening. Complete success of Miss Lou Baldwin and the entire company. Tonight and until further notice Miss Lou Zavistowsky's new play called "Here she Goes and There she Goes." Also Mr. Nickerson and Mr. Staley in their act entitled "The Duet by Poison," also the usual first part with Nickerson and Staley on the ends and Gere as interlocutor, also Miss Morrison and Mr. Morice in vocal duets. Price of admission remains the same. Nine o'clock on the first part, and an exhibition equal to any on the coast. Mr. Hill invites criticism. Come and see for yourself. New orchestral selections and new music on the grand stand under the leadership of Mr. George Lambert at 8:30 P. M. The entertainment will begin at 7:30 P. M. Entrance on Benton street. Private boxes on Chenamus. "Erin go Bragh," "St. Patrick's Day Parade," "Allison Alana," "Burr's Dream," "The Green Above the Red Boys" and "Killarney" by Mr. Glenn.

Burnett's Cocaine.

The best hair dressing in the world. Burnett's cocaine allays irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff, invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree, and has earned a deserved reputation for promoting the growth and preserving the beauty of the human hair. Ladies dressing their hair elaborately for the evening will find that it imparts a healthy natural gloss to the hair, and will cause it to retain its shape for hours. Burnett's flavoring extracts are used and endorsed by the best hotels, confectioners and grocers throughout the country. They are perfectly pure.

A rough, cold or sore throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable lung disease or consumption. Brown's Bronchial troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in asthma, bronchitis, coughs, catarrh, and the throat troubles which singers and public speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's bronchial troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere.

Have Wistar's balsam of wild cherry always at hand. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, influenza, consumption, and all throat and lung complaints. 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

—Salmon bellies, at retail, at Warren & Eatons.

—Max. Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

—If you want a good big oyster stew in style, call around to Tom Smiths, next door to P. H. Fox, Main street Astoria, Oregon. Open at all hours.

—Rheumatism is the most terrible disease that has ever afflicted humanity, yet it instantly yields to the powerful drugs that Kendall's Spavin Cure is composed of. See their advertisement.

—Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.

—Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.

—THE ASTORIAN job presses will fit you out with your winter supplies of letter-heads, bill-heads, cards, envelopes, etc., etc., at astonishingly low rates, and in exquisite style. Call and see samples of work done for others.

—Whenever you want to buy an article, purchase it from a store-keeper in town. You know them, they are identified with you in the interest of keeping up the city, which is an organization for mutual protection, and if you are cheated you know where to apply for redress. When you buy of a transient pedlar, whom you may never see again, if you are cheated you must pocket your own losses.

—The time has long since passed when mechanical trades provided our sons with a living. Labor-saving machinery, patent tools and steam have robbed the trade of the future it offered to our boys in the days of the indentured apprentice system. The lathers and do-nothings of our metropolitan cities are composed largely of tradesmen and professional men, and merchandising is a failure, if the number of bankrupt merchants who had to succumb to the pressure of the times can be taken as a criterion. What the country needs is producers, and the waste fields of unutilized land offers an opportunity to place the rising generation in the way of making homes for themselves and better things for posterity.

HORSE
And his Diseases, by
B. J. KENDALL, M.D.
Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and containing an INDEX OF DISEASES.
Which gives the symptoms, cause and the best treatment of each; a table giving all the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; 65 engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each.
EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK.
Thousands who have seen it commend it, and many good horsemen have extolled it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $5.00 to $10.00. Do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the horse, which are so full of Latin phrases and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but,
BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE.
A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied no
HORSE-OWNER
Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did not know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured
